

SPECIAL EDUCATION ADVISORY COMMITEE BYLAWS

absences within a one-year period may result in dismissal by the committee coordinator. Excused absences include, but are not limited to, personal or family illness, emergency situations, jury or military duty, or mandatory employment duty. It shall be the responsibility of members to report excused absences to the committee coordinator who shall record excused absences. In cases of numerous excused absences or long-term absences, the committee coordinator shall consider the factors in each individual case and determine whether continued service on the SEAC is practicable.

Section Six. Virtual Attendance. Members may participate in meetingstually through various means, to the extent they are readily available to the committee coordinator. However, members shall not participate virtually on a recurring basis.

Section Seven. Decisil/Making. Members shall attempt to reach decisions by consensus. However, if a clear consensus cannot be obtained, decisions shall be reached by a majority vote. Each member shall be entitled to one vote per motion. Members in virtual attendance may vote, but proxy voting is not allowed.
